Personal Independence Payment

Claim form

This is the first stage of the Personal Independence Payment claim process.

Claims to Personal Independence Payment should only be made on an original form provided and approved by the Department. This form has been personalised for the person it was requested for and can only be used to claim Personal Independence Payment for them. Photocopies will not be accepted as valid claims.

How to fill in the form

Please use a pen. If you make a mistake, cross it out.
Don't use correction fluid.

Answer all the questions that apply to you.

About you

If you're filling in this form for someone else, tell us about them, not you.

Surname or family name

Other names

Title

For example, Mr, Mrs, Miss, Ms

Please tell us the name you want us to use when we write to you, if it's different from above.

For example, if you have a different title, or letters after your name, such as Sir John Smith BSc.

Previous surname

Tell us any other surname you have been known by. If you've had more than one previous surname, tell us the surname you used last.

About you continued

National Insurance (NI) number

You can get this from your National Insurance number card, payslips or letters from the Department for Work and Pensions.

I hold Power of Attorney

I am a Deputy

I am a Tutor (under Scottish law)

I am a Guardian (under Scottish law)

I am a Curator bonis or Judicial factor (under Scottish law)

I am a Corporate Acting Body or Corporate Appointee

Please tell us the name of your organisation:

For example, an organisation appointed to act on behalf of the person the benefit is for such as a local authority or firm of solicitors.

Unless we've already seen this authority, we'll need to see it before we can process this claim. Please send us your power of attorney or any relevant documents with this claim. You can send the original document, or a certified copy.

I want to be appointed to act on their behalf

Tick this box if

- the person you're claiming for is too ill or disabled to claim for themselves and you want to be appointed to handle their benefit affairs, or
- you're in the process of becoming a legally appointed representative.

We'll contact you about this.

I am claiming for them under the special rules for terminally ill people

The special rules for terminally ill people are for people with a progressive disease who are not expected to live for longer than six months. You may wish to tell the person the benefit is for, about this claim. This is because we will send letters about Personal Independence Payment to this person.

Don't worry if you see more health or social care professionals. We'll ask for more information about the people you see in the next stage of the claiming process.

Consent

We may want to get information about your health condition or disability and how it affects you when we deal with:

- your claim for Personal Independence Payment
- any request to reconsider or appeal a decision about your claim.

We may want to contact your GP, or other people or organisations, to get this information.

You don't have to agree to us contacting these people or organisations. If you don't agree to this, we may not have all the information we need when we make a decision about your claim.

Do you agree that:

- we, or someone working on our behalf, may ask your GP, or other people or organisations, for this information
- your GP, or other people or organisations, can give us, or someone working on our behalf, this information?

Yes

No

Signature

Date

Specimen only - not for use

How we pay you

We ask for your account details before we decide on a claim so we can pay you straightaway if you qualify for benefit. This doesn't guarantee that you'll get Personal Independence Payment.

You must read the information in the letter we sent with this form before you fill in the account details.

Please tell us the account details below.

It's very important you fill in all the boxes correctly, including the building society roll or reference number, if you have one. If you tell us the wrong account details your payment may be delayed or you may lose money.

You can find the account details on your chequebook or bank statements. If you're not sure about the details, ask the bank or building society.

Name of the account holder

Please write the name of the account holder exactly as it's shown on the debit card, chequebook or statement.

Sort code

Please tell us all 6 numbers, for example: 12-34-56.

--	--	--	--	--	--

Account number

Most account numbers are 8 numbers long. If your account number has fewer than 10 numbers, please fill in the numbers from the left.

Building society roll or reference number

If you're using a building society account you may need to tell us a roll or reference number. This may be a mix of letters and numbers, and may be up to 18 characters long. If you're not sure if the account has a roll or reference number, ask the building society.

Special rules for terminally ill people

We have special rules for people who are terminally ill. This means people with a progressive disease who are not expected to live for longer than another six months.

Do you want to claim under the special rules for terminally ill people?

- Yes  Answer the questions below.
No  Go to page 17.

What is your illness?

It's important that you send us a DS1500 form to support your claim if you have not sent one for this or any other benefit in the last six months.

The DS1500 is a report about your medical condition. You won't have to pay for it. You can ask the doctor's receptionist, a nurse or a social worker to arrange it for you. You don't have to see the doctor.

Are you going to send us a DS1500 to support your claim?

- Yes
No
Don't know

Don't wait until you've got the DS1500. Please continue with your claim. It will be helpful if you send the DS1500 back to us within the next five days.

Special rules for terminally ill people continued

The next stage of claiming – if you have claimed under the special rules for terminally ill people

We may contact the health and social care professional you have told us about for more information about your claim. Go to page 19.

The next stage of claiming

If you have not claimed under the special rules for terminally ill people

The next stage of claiming Personal Independence Payment will start when we send you another form through the post so you can tell us how your condition affects you. You need to fill in the form and send it back to us.

If you think you'll need any help or support to fill in the form, contact a local support organisation as soon as possible to arrange help.

If you are signing the form for someone else go to page 18.

If you are signing the form for yourself, read the information and complete the questions below.

We understand that some people find it difficult to return forms because of a mental-health or behavioural condition, learning difficulty, developmental disorder or memory problems. This could mean any kind of learning difficulty or dementia. It could mean anxiety or depression, obsessive-compulsive disorder, psychosis, schizophrenia or personality disorder, attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), autistic spectrum disorder, or developmental delay.

By mental-health conditions we mean, for example

- depression, anxiety, post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD), psychosis, schizophrenia, personality disorder.

By behavioural conditions we mean, for example

- attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), conduct disorder.

By learning difficulty we mean, for example

- Down's syndrome, fragile X syndrome.

By developmental disorder we mean, for example

- autistic spectrum disorder, developmental delay, speech or language disorder.

By memory problems we mean, for example

- any form of dementia – for example Alzheimer's, dementia with Lewy bodies, vascular dementia, dementia associated with other conditions. Memory problems as a result of brain injury after an accident.

About Disability Living Allowance (DLA)

a Are you getting DLA, or have you ever been awarded DLA?

Yes  Go to question b.

No  Go to page 19.

b Is there any medical evidence from your DLA claim that you think might help us understand how your disability affects you?

This evidence could be a report from: a GP, hospital, school or other health or social care professional. If you've had a medical examination for DLA we could use the report from the examining medical practitioner (EMP). If an Employment and Support Allowance report was used to support your DLA claim we could use this report.

No  Go to page 19. We will not use any medical evidence from your DLA claim.

Yes  Please use the following medical evidence (tick all that apply):

- GP report
- Hospital report
- School report
- Employment and Support Allowance (ESA) report
- Examining medical practitioner (EMP) report
- Consultant report or supporting letter
- Health and social care professional report
- Other medical evidence.
Please tell us what other medical evidence

I want you to use all the medical evidence from my DLA claim.

I want to see all the medical evidence from my DLA claim before I decide.

If requested, we can get your DLA file and make sure this medical evidence is used. Because of the laws about Data Protection and how long we're allowed to keep documents, old evidence may not be available. If evidence is still on your DLA file, we'll make sure that it is used.

What to do now

Check that you have answered all the questions that apply to you.

Read the information we sent with this form. It tells you about how we collect and use information and where to go for help and advice about this and other benefits.

Make sure you have signed the consent section on page 13.

Now read and sign the declaration below.

Declaration

We cannot pay any benefit until you've signed the declaration and returned the form to us. Please return the signed form straightaway.

I declare that the information I have given on this form is correct and complete as far as I know and believe.

I understand that if I knowingly give false information, my benefit may be stopped and I may be liable to prosecution or other action.

I understand that I must promptly tell the office that pays my Personal Independence Payment of anything that may affect my entitlement to, or the amount of, that benefit.

I understand that the Department for Work and Pensions may use the information which it has now or may get in the future to decide whether I am entitled to:

- the benefit I am claiming
- any other benefit I have claimed
- any other benefit I may claim or be awarded in the future.

This is my claim for Personal Independence Payment.

Signature

Date

Print your name here

Send the claim form back to us straightaway. On the last page you will see the address to return this form. Put this form in the envelope we have sent you so that the address shows through the window.

It does not need a stamp.

This area for automatic personalisation for customer's name and post code.

Please return the completed form to this address

Put the completed form in the envelope provided, making sure the address shows through the envelope window. The envelope doesn't need a stamp unless you live outside the United Kingdom.
